The Honorable Omar Burleson
Member of Congress
House Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Congressman Burleson:

I have just noticed that an interim report by the President's Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence was issued in January of this year. I have followed closely the appointment of this commission following last year's riots and am extremely interested in their findings and conclusions.

Would you please either see that I receive a copy of this January report or refer me to another office?

Your helpfulness in this matter, as in so many other request, is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
